

JUNIOR ALASKA CLOSE UP 2006-2007 STUDENT CHECKLIST

Name: _____ School: _____

Junior Alaska Close Up Local Teacher: _____

Congratulations on being chosen to participate in Junior Alaska Close Up. Your week-long experience studying our state government in Juneau will empower you and will help you understand and affect decisions that change your community. Besides – you will have a great time meeting and working with lots of other students from across the state!

I. Prepare for Participation

- Read about Junior Alaska Close Up at this Web site: www.serrc.org/academy. After reading the “Just for Students” section, you will know a little bit about the session in which you will participate.
- Help your teacher complete the Registration form: Make sure your information is correct on this form that your teacher will send in.
- Have your parents complete the All-Alaska Academy Application and Permission Packet, then make sure your teacher has it when you arrive in Juneau. You can’t participate without it. If you are interested in rock climbing, you must have a separate waiver from www.rockdump.com.

II: Complete These Assignments Before You Leave for Alaska Close Up. Find a teacher to help you if you need it, or work with others attending the session. Write your answers on paper or save them to a word processing file. Check off the assignments as you complete them. Bring this checklist and your assignments with you to Juneau. If you decide to complete the college credit course, you must complete the optional assignments.

- Assignment 1: Who are your state legislators?
- Assignment 2: Who are your fellow participants?
- Assignment 3: Introduce Yourself
- Assignment 5: About your School and Community
- Assignment 6: Introduction to the Legislative Branch (optional)
- Assignment 7: Introduction to the Executive Branch (optional)
- Assignment 8: Introduction to the Judicial Branch (optional)
- Assignment 12: Sights and activities in Juneau
